Success in Business Award – Delish Fine Foods – Linda & Dennis Dineen

The Dineens started their deli and cafe 18 months ago with the goal of providing homestyle traditional British food to the community. The couple emigrated to Canada from the UK in 2000, and four years ago moved to Nova Scotia to live by the ocean. The business blossomed quickly with Delish Fine Foods being chosen as the Best British Shop in the world and being awarded a Success in Business Award by the Chamber.

Longevity Award – Redmond's Home Hardware – John & Shelley Glover

It will be 32 years in August since Redmond's was started by local plumber, Wayne Redmond. Shelley worked in the business with her father since she was 12 and John Glover bought the business 12 years ago. He had always been interested in the business and when the opportunity presented itself he took it. John and Shelley later married and have expanded the business into the thriving entity it is today.

Generosity Award – Credit Union Atlantic – Shawna Seto Moore

Four years ago this summer, Credit Union Atlantic opened their branch in Tantallon. Since then CUA has sponsored the Chamber's community fireworks display twice a year. CUA President and CEO, Marie Mullally says their focus on the community is at the cornerstone of everything they do. She says the staff of the branch are phenomenal and they took great pride in receiving the Chamber's Generosity Award.

Marketing Innovation Award - Acadian Maple Products Ltd. - Brian,

Simone & William Allaway - When the Allaways decided to show their children how to make maple syrup in the backyard they never dreamed it would result in the business they have today. They started the business as a hobby in 1982 and today spend roughly $750,000 a year buying maple syrup from local producers, employ 16 people and export a wide variety of maple products around the world.

Volunteerism Award – Anne Chisholm - Anne has been volunteering forever. It started when she ran coffee shops in London, Ontario, and continued when she and her husband Archie retired and moved back to Nova Scotia in 2003. Anne works with Archie in his business Bay Hammock Co. Ltd. She started the Peggy's Cove Area Festival of the Arts last year, as a way to give local artisans more exposure. This year's festival runs from July 12-22. <http://peggyscoveareaarts.blogspot.ca/>
